

Supporting the emotional
of children, young people
and their families

Every person matters

We offer free, practical counselling and support for children, young people and their families who are experiencing different life issues that are making them feel sad, stressed, angry or anxious.

Our services understand and respect cultural and lifestyle diversity.

To be eligible, you and/or your family must:

- be 18 years or younger.
  - have children in the family who are 18 years or younger.
  - live in the area covering the Cities of Stirling, Melville, Belmont, Victoria Park or Canning.
-
- Short term or long term support.
  - Community development and wellbeing activities.
  - Information that will help develop skills and strengths leading to emotional health and wellbeing.
  - The option for after hours appointments.
  - Staff with experience working with clients from Aboriginal and culturally and linguistically diverse background.
  - We can meet you in a place where you feel comfortable.

Please contact the Youth Services referral line for more information:

T: 1800 800 046

E: yhreferrals@mercyare.com.au