BE JOB READY WHEN YOUR CHILD IS SCHOOL-READY

Helping parents achieve their education and employment goals

Welcome to our ParentsNext program

You can self-refer if you feel you might be eligible. One of our dedicated Support Consultants will talk you through the eligibility criteria, and if applicable, will register you for the service. Alternatively, Centrelink might refer you if they think you might be eligible.

ParentsNext helped me go to college to finish year 11 and 12. The secondary college was set up with a free childcare facility so I knew that my kids were being looked after while I was in class... this made a big difference!" ASHLEIGH, ParentsNext parent

How ParentsNext can help you

With our extensive experience, we can help by providing:

- A family friendly service environment, so you can bring your children to appointments at our child friendly offices
- Connections to other parents, local health and family support services
- Access and support to complete accredited and non-accredited training courses
- · Connections to employers who are ready to hire
- · Access to driving lessons and obtaining a full driver's licence
- Access to counselling services
- Assistance with sourcing and applying for jobs. We offer support with résumé writing and job interview practice
- Interpreter services are available for parents from non-English speaking backgrounds

Are you eligible?

Parents will be eligible for referral if they:

- have been receiving Parenting Payment (partnered or single) continuously and not engaged in work in the last six months; and
- have a youngest child who is at least nine months and under six years of age; and are under 55 years of age; and EITHER
- an Early School Leaver, that is, are under 22 years of age and have not completed the final year of school (or equivalent level of education); or
